Centurion American presents The Highlands at Trophy Club @ the Northwest Metroport Chamber Luncheon

The Town of Trophy Club--Centurion American presented their latest development, The Highlands at Trophy Club, at the Northwest Metroport Luncheon on April 3rd at the Trophy Club Country Club.

Over 100 active chamber members and guests attended the luncheon to hear Kirk Wilson speak on behalf of Centurion American. Mr. Wilson presented the audience with the 831.0 acre development layout, along with entry plan improvements to Trophy Club Drive, overall lot layouts for neighborhoods 1 through 11, Northeast and Northwest Park dedications, and open space/pathway plan improvements that will offer residents easy access to the country club. Mr. Wilson also spoke in detail on Neighborhood 8 and its private amenity center, the new thoroughfare improvements to HWY 377 and the proposed new high school. Mr. Wilson concluded the presentation by unveiling the current prospective builders and housing starts coming as early as Spring 2008.
